Award criteria

Please review the specific award criteria and our 'hot tips' nomination guide.

Award category limits

- A person can only be nominated in one of the individual award categories.
- An in-house team can only be nominated in one of the team award categories.
- A person or team may also be nominated for one or more special award categories.
- If nominations are received for a person or team outside these award category limits, the judges may disregard, re-categorise or merge the entries in their sole discretion.
- ILANZ Executive Members (being the ILANZ President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary) cannot be nominated in any individual award categories but their colleagues and teams can be nominated for any other individual or team award categories.

Eligibility

All lawyers employed or engaged by organisations in an in-house capacity and holding a current NZLS in-house practicing certificate are eligible for the 2025 Awards. Note the Artemis In-house Innovation Award may also be awarded to another employee of the in-house legal team's employer (who may or may not hold a current practising certificate).

Exception - members of the judging panel and ILANZ Executive Committee members are not eligible for consideration in the individual award categories.

The 2025 award period runs from 1 March 2024 until the nomination closing date. Activities started prior to 1 March 2024 can be included in nominations if they continued into the award period.
